Are you on the list?

by ZIPPORAH

It's no secret that I get invited to some fabulous events. Just this coming week I have three that I've already RSVP'd to (check the calendar on my sidebar to see what events I'll be at each week). I get e-mails, tweets and facebook updates almost every week telling me how lucky I am and asking how THEY can get invited.

Champagne Living's readers can now get invited to some of the same FABULOUS VIP events that I do. Sign up for YouAreOnTheList.com and get invited to exclusive fashion, beauty, music, food and lifestyle experiences in New York, Los Angeles and elsewhere. You Are on the List offers TWO different types of membership, a complimentary entry point into private events, as well as an Invitation Only List, an annual fee-based program that comes with privileges such as avoiding long lines outside events with VIP entry, insider knowledge on upcoming events and access beyond the velvet ropes to YOUAREONTHELIST.com dedicated VIP areas!

Their Facebook and Twitter pages are also great resources for learning what is coming up directly from CEO Robin Ross.

Some of the past events that you could have gotten VIP entrance to are:

Paper Mag Macy's Celebrate Launch of Giambattista Valli Collection for Impulse
